

Presenting:

Architect Les W. Travis, ready to serve
LES W. TRAVIS, Registered Architect, has headed GGWArchitects<sup>2</sup> since it emerged as a separate "Educational Studio" from GARY GUY WILSON, AIA, ARCHITECT STUDIOS..., in October, 2002. Born in Manchester, England, Les moved to Canada, where he majored in Architecture. Then it was on to California, where he acted as Project Manager for over 30 years at Southern California Edison. He and his staff produced a multitude of successful projects-among those several technical training, information, and education centers.

In 1995, Les and his wife, DeAnna, moved to Las Vegas. He managed a number of Clark County School District projects before being invited to join GGWArchitects<sup>2</sup> in 2002. It was a perfect fit for a studio, handling educational facility projects, exclusively. Among his current projects is the Clark High School Theater Addition, scheduled to open in Spring, 2004.

Throughout his illustrious career, Les has supervised Project Managers, Architects, Landscape Architects, CAD Technicians, and Mechanical and Electrical Engineers. He is licensed in Nevada, California, and Arizona and retains a membership with the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB).

GGWArchitects<sup>2</sup>

"EDUCATION... THE COMPLETE FOCUS"

After over 33 years as GARY GUY WILSON, AIA, ARCHITECT STUDIOS..., GGWArchitects<sup>2</sup> was born-the result of an intense need for a skilled, specialized Architectural Team delivering creative, relevant, practical, and timely solutions for Educational Facilities. Company President and Principal Architect, Gary Guy Wilson, A.I.A. created the new "Studio" in October, 2002.

As an expert resource in the Educational Community, GGWArchitects<sup>2</sup> makes "Education the Complete Focus." Company President Gary Guy Wilson builds client relationships around listening, hearing, and remaining flexible to the needs of the client. An unmatched kind of service is brought to every phase of the project from inception to completion. "Relevant Design Service to Education", the mission of this specialized studio, is exemplified by every member of the team. We aren't satisfied until the client is satisfied!

Southwest Exterior Façade of the Auxiliary Gymnasium at Clark High School, Las Vegas, Nevada

He also serves as Program Chair for the Las Vegas chapter of the Council of Educational Facility Planners International (CEFPI).

His vast knowledge, skills, and relationships within the Educational Community lead to happy clients!